Global Mamas®

Mission

Global Mamas enhances the international marketplace with unique, high quality, African-made apparel, and at the same time provides sustainable livelihoods for women in Africa.

APPROACH

- Ensures that each woman-owned business in the network meets the high quality standards of international consumers.
- Enables the economic independence of women in Africa by promoting their traditional skills in producing handmade batik textiles and recycled glass beads.
- Helps African women establish export markets and manage their growing businesses through innovative business strategies.

SUPPORTING FAIR TRADE PRACTICES

- Global Mamas ensures women are paid a living wage enabling them to truly improve their standard of living.
- For the past five years 40% of annual revenue was paid each year in wages to the women in the network.
- Women are paid upfront for completed products and receive financial assistance through raw materials revolving loan fund.
- Recognized by FTF and IFAT for practicing fair trade principles.

HANDCRAFTING

All Global Mamas' products are handcrafted, making each product slightly unique while maintaining the highest quality.

SHARE OUR STORY

Each item comes with a tag that describes the organization and is signed by the artisan. If interested, we can provide you with signage and other display information to help you share our story with your customers.

WOMEN. A GOOD INVESTMENT

When presented with economic opportunities, each Global Mama carefully invests her proceeds to ensure the advancement of her business, her employees and her family.

Recycled Trashy Bags

270 tons of plastic waste is generated every day in Ghana - 85% from non-biodegradable plastic bags containing purified water and ice cream. Recycling plastic into useful and attractive products is creating a healthier environment and generating jobs for many Africans. Plastic bags are carefully washed and disinfected. Bags are made from 100% recycled polyethylene plastic.

Trading Bead Collection

African Trading Beads are rich in cultural and historical significance. They have been treasured for centuries for their complexity of hand-made construction and unique designs. Originally shipped from Venice to Africa in the early 1800's, Trading Beads were exchanged for valuable goods such as ivory and gold. This Trading Bead marks a significant milestone in West African history before its journey to you.

african spirit

African Spirit

This African Spirit is a good luck charm. As it meant in many early African cultures, raffia combined with other materials was used to denote something good, a type of good luck charm. Raffia is still used today in many traditional African ceremonies to ask the gods to bring good things. Each African Spirit is totally unique as it will be constructed from a variety of recycled glass beads.
